

SAFA STANDARD STATUTES – PROVINCES

SOUTH AFRICAN FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

---

PREAMBLE

NOTING:

- that the first organized formation of football at National level was established in 1892;
- that the fragmentation in South African sport in general and football in particular, was caused by the policies of racial discrimination and apartheid;
- that the policies of racial discrimination and apartheid based on the ideology of white supremacy over people of colour created a situation of independent existence of the various football organizations against the wishes of the majority of the football family in the country.

ACKNOWLEDGING

- the meaningful role played by heroes and heroines of our struggle against racialism and ethnicity, and the role of non-racial organizations in particular in their attempts to unify football in South Africa.

REALISING

- the urgent need to fulfill the historic task of unifying the different football organizations in preparation for a united, democratic, indivisible and non-racial South Africa.
- the need to defend the democratic gains and to transform South African football to be in line with democratic values underpinning the South African Constitution and to be world class.

RECOGNISING a non-racial society in which: -

- all people shall be equal before the law;
- there is no oppressive interference with the rights of individuals;
- athletes/players compete equally and fairly in football;
- all shall have access to relevant, compulsory and equal education, adequate residential and recreational facilities in general and adequate housing in particular and have a universal franchise system determined by the will of the people;
- people enjoy the principles of democracy, accountability and transparency;
- all people enjoy freedom of association, freedom of movement, freedom of domicile, freedom to ownership of land, freedom to participate fully in the economy of the country and share in its wealth and live in peace, harmony and comfort.

CONFIRMING the philosophy of non-racialism to be the guiding principle in the organization and in our endeavour to enhance unity, peace and harmony in sport in our country;

- that since unification of national football structures on 23 March 1991 and re-admission to CAF and FIFA one National Football governing body was constituted;
- that the National Football Federation is part of South Africa having a new constitution which entrenches norms and values of the civilised world and a Bill of Rights;
- that the aforementioned social conditions were and still are the fundamental requirements for the entry of South African sport into the international sporting community in general, and in respect of football in particular to the FEDERATION INTERNATIONALE de FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION (FIFA) and Confederation Africaine de Football (CAF), Confederation of Southern African Football Associations (COSAFA) and South African Sports Confederation and Olympic Committee (SASCOC)

RESOLVING to constitute the Members of the SOUTH AFRICAN SOCCER ASSOCIATION, SOUTH AFRICAN SOCCER FEDERATION, FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH AFRICA and the SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONAL FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION into an indissoluble single organization under the SOUTH AFRICAN FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION and under the constitution hereby established to promote and control Association Football in SOUTH AFRICA and to give effect to the ideas set out in this preamble.
